

Phosphate Media Spec Sheet

Phosphate Crystals (Loose Fill)

Phosphate products are a form of slowly soluble polyphosphate available in small, glassy beads. Phosphate products dissolve at a controlled concentration to prevent scale formation and corrosion. Phosphate can be fed at different concentrations in order to fit particular treatment situations or requirements. Normally a concentration of Phosphate at threshold levels of 0.5-5.0 ppm polyphosphate will inhibit scale and corrosion.